

Leadership Agility Accelerator

A new resource for you and your clients

The Leadership Agility Accelerator is a cutting-edge self-reflection and development tool. Based on the research that underlies the award-winning book, Leadership Agility, the Accelerator gives leaders a quick, hands-on, budget-friendly way to increase their agility and effectiveness.

How it works

More than a self-assessment, the Accelerator will also guide your clients in selecting and adopting specific leadership practices that will take their agility to a new level. They will:

1. Identify what they're currently trying to accomplish as a leader.
2. Assess their current level of leadership agility.
3. Select a few best practices designed to take them to their next level of agility.
4. Create an action plan for each chosen practice, with your assistance.

Who it's for

The Accelerator is designed for leaders who (formally or informally) lead teams and initiate projects to improve organizational functioning.

Individual coaching applications—Examples

- ◆ In any of your one-on-one coaching engagements
- ◆ With clients who don't currently have the time or budget for a 360 process.
- ◆ At the beginning of an introductory coaching offer.

Group applications—Examples

- ◆ With management teams. For example, as part of a team development process or off-site.
